NOTES FROM AROUND THE OASIS

The Pote

Greetings Nobles All,

As we swing into summer, I want wish everyone ahead of time, a happy, healthy and safe summer. We had a great time at the Queens/Nassua Shrine club. Over Twenty were in attendance at the Jackson Hole in Bayside. The best hamburgers around. Up coming events include Imperial (June 30 to July 4th.) Our second annual night at the Ducks on August 3rd and our annual Barbe-q in Amityville. The Barbe-q will be a joint event run between Willard Sylvan Grove Lodge and Kismet. Hope to see you there.

YITF,

Ill. Mike Iannone

Chief Rabban

As we prepare for the next Imperial Session in Indianapolis I want to wish all our Nobles and Ladies a summer filled with fun and sun. Remember to go online and review the Kismet website and FEZ newsletter. We have many social activities planned over the summer months. Florence Day will be a joint Mecca-Kismet event so come out and share salt with your fellow Nobles. Also, the Ducks game in August along with our Family BBQ day will be open to all family, friends and Masons. We are at the Kismet Oasis every Monday night. There is something for every Brother and Noble at Kismet. All Kismet social events are open to our Ladies, masonic brothers, family, and friends. Let's keep the momentum going. We are halfway through 2013.

Yours—Greg Feldman
Chief Rabban, 2013

Assistant Rabban

Greetings all Nobles:

The memorial day parade took place on a mild & sunny day. Our potentate rode proudly in an open convertible. Our Shriners marched and our Masonic War Veteran's carried the American flag to commemorate the day. For a grand finale bringing up the rear, was our very own Franklin Donato, and his traditional Shiner Car!

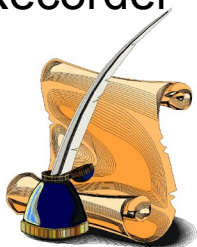

Keep in mind August 3rd we will be going to the Ducks game, free parking and fireworks included, all for $15 - what a deal!!

August 17th is our annual picnic, at Amityville Park, make sure to save the date!

The MASA convention at Virginia Beach is in September - watch your newsletter for lodging arrangement's and price's.

Keep Smiling,
George "Chuckles" Heyen

The Recorder

The Illustrious Sir Mike Iannone and the rest of Kismet's Divan continue to make the Shrine THE PLACE TO BE for fun, food and fellowship. Come and enjoy yourself while at the same time support your Shrine and the Hospitals that we exist for.

If you have not heard through the grapevine, we are looking at a handful of used mini race cars to start another unit for Shrine parades. If you are interested in taking part of this unit, which does include purchasing one of the cars and having responsibility for its care and feeding, please let me know. Let's continue finding things to do that make being a Noble of Kismet awesome!

Ill. Sir Russell L. Magidson PP, Recorder 2013

NOTES FROM AROUND THE OASIS

High Priest And Prophet

To start off I'd like to thank all the Nobles who came out and showed their patriotism while marching in the annual Hicksville Memorial Day Parade. During the parade several spectators asked, Hey!, where's the mini-cars?" Well next year we'll be able to answer, "Here they are!" Kismet has just acquired several mini-cars and I'm really looking forward to seeing them in action. Thanks to all the Nobles who made this happen! Also on the clubs and units front, if anyone is interested in joining and re-constituting our Orient Band, contact Ill. Mike Marmo. Thanks Mike for stepping up, yet again! Moving right along, I hope all of you and your families are having a fine Summer. As you are reading this, a few traveling and tired nobles, including yours truly, of Kismet have returned from Imperial Session in Indianapolis from what was a great time. Although Imperial is now behind us for another year, there's still tons of stuff lined up here at Kismet before we say goodbye to the Summer of '13. On Saturday August 3rd is Kismet Shriners Night at the Long Island Ducks. A big thanks to Dave Rothstein for what we know will be yet another great sporting event. Of course where's Summer without a good old fashioned BBQ. Well Kismet has got you covered with our Annual Summer BBQ at Amityville Beach on Sunday August 18th. I'm sure our merry band of chili chefs are ready for another great cook-off. Of course with so many Masonic social events happening during the Summer, that means so many opportunities to talk to a brother about membership in Kismet Shrine. What better time to talk to a brother about fun and fellowship while in the midst of fun and fellowship. Our Summer's can be productive as well as fun! Have a fun and enjoyable Summer! Yours in wisdom...

Events

So far, this year has been a success as far as the planning of events that raise money for the Kismet Shrine Hospital Patient Transportation Fund (HPTF) and the Shriners Hospitals as well.

The 2nd Annual Kismet Shrine Family Day with the New York Islanders, that was held earlier this year, raised over $300 for the Kismet Shrine HPTF.

The 2nd Annual Shriners Hospitals for Children Day at CitiField also raised a yet to be determined amount of money for the Shriners Hospitals for Children. 40% of the money raised will be donated to the Philadelphia Hospital, 40% of the money raised will be donated to the Boston Hospital and 20% of the money raised will be donated to the Springfield Hospital.

The next event planned is the 2nd Annual Kismet Shrine Family Night with the Long Island Ducks. A portion of the money from the tickets sold will be donated to the Kismet Shrine HPTF. The Duck game will take place on the evening of August 3, 2013 and there will be fireworks after the game. I am hoping that many Nobles and their friends and family will attend. The more tickets that are sold, the more money that we will make for the HPTF.

As always, if you have an idea for an event that you would like planned, please let me know. Event planning at Kismet is a WE activity.

YITF,

Noble David Rothstein davidrothstein@verizon.net (917) 322-9136

Clowns

It is with deep regret that we mourn the loss of another Kismet Clown. Bob Morton was a retired clown before I got to Kismet and I never personally met him. From all the good things many people have said he must have been a wonderful Joey. Please pray for him and all our other departed and missed clowns. One of the great things about the Masonic Fraternity is the feeling of brotherhood and fellowship. It is why many of us come to meetings and join units, it's fun with friends, The Clown Unit is special and we have a certain closeness because of what we do. When you are dedicated to helping children smile there is a special bond. Remember that the clown Unit is open to Kismet Nobles and their families. Dues are $10 for the Noble and $5 for family member. All you need is motivation and a little time, we can teach you the rest. Just come with a smile because we "keep 'em smiling"

NOTES FROM AROUND THE OASIS

Captain Of the Guard

In addition to the regular comraderie and fellowship that regularly takes place at the Oasis of Kismet on Monday evenings, the Nobles present were treated to some home cooked meals during the month of May. The Culinary Unit really did a great job. Prior to the stated meeting in May, the Nobility was treated to a home cooked meal, made by Noble Ken Klein, of meatloaf, mashed potatoes and green beans. Also in May, the Nobility present was treated to another home cooked meal by Noble Ken Klein and Noble Leo Johnson. Spaghetti, meatballs, tomato sauce and garlic bread was prepared by two of Kismet's talented cooks. And all of this food was available for only $5.00. What better bargain can you get for $5.00?

While the food, fellowship and comraderie is abound on Monday evenings, another thing is abound at Kismet on these nights, and that is Cigar and Cigarette Smoke. You will see on the front page of THE FEZ a statement noting that smoking is not to be done on the second floor of Kismet during non-stated meeting Mondays and smoking is not to be done in the lower level of Kismet during the Mondays of the stated meeting. Unfortunately, this is not being adhered to. As a non-smoker, I am courteously asking that Nobles adhere to this policy. The smoking is keeping some Nobles away from Kismet.

Kismet has a Cigar Night and that is the only time that smoking should be done on the second floor of Kismet.

I hope that all Nobles and their families are having a good summer.

YITF,

Noble David Rothstein

Public Relations

I took the time and went to Tampa for the Imperial Public Relations Seminar. It was good that they held the conference but it was lacking in specifics and direction. This is a challenging time for us and our hospitals for children. The millions of dollars being spent to improve our name recognition and public awareness by Tampa is not working as well as many of us had hoped. But we in Kismet can accomplish the same effect ourselves with little or no money. All we all have to do is talk up the Shriners Hospitals for Children. Please don't be bashful, don't be ashamed, don't be laid back. Be proud of who we are, be proud of what we do and always sing our song where ever you go. Our hospitals need children, please go spread the word about our good news. If you need flyers, posters, hand outs - we got them and we will give them to you. BE PROUD TO BE A SHRINER, SUPPORT KISMET SHRINE

- John Kelly

KISMET OASIS Every Monday Night at CLUB KISMET

3rd Floor
18 West Nicolai Street
Hicksville, NY 11801

We are open every Monday Night from 6:00PM until.....Watering hole is always open to quench the thirst of our nobles. The culinary crew provides nourishment for only $5.00. If the smoking bothers you, let us know and we will smoke outside – but you have to let somebody know (The Recorder, The Potentate, The Rajah).

DID YOU MISS OUR JUNE STATED MEETING?

Kismet was crowded with 33 Nobles in attendance for the June Stated Meeting, which was held on Monday, June 3, 2013.

Those present were treated to another home cooked meal. The meal started with fresh mozzarella with tomatoes and balsamic glaze and fried corn fritters. It continued with linguini with Cajun lobster sauce and sautéed shrimps and scallops as well as sliced flank steak with a port of wine reduction. Who would have expected such a meal at Kismet? And all for the cost of $5 per Noble.

The meal was cooked by Eric Nussbaum with assistance from Nobles Ken Klein, Leo Johnson, Joe Ippolito Jr., and Omar Roman. If you enjoyed the meal, Eric would like to come back and cook for us again. We appreciate his cooking this meal for us.

Of course, there were libations as well, and we did conduct business at our Stated Meeting later on. We inducted one new Noble.

If you were not there, you missed a great evening of food, camaraderie, and fellowship. So, please come on down and show up at the Shrine.

THE 139TH IMPERIAL SESSION IS COMING

There will be plenty of fun, fellowship and brotherly love at the upcoming 139th Imperial Session in Indianapolis. Our amazing Shrine clowns will lead the parade on July 1st. The parade begins at 7 p.m.

Imperial Potentate Al Madsen wants to set a world record for the most clowns in an organized parade. To do that, we need to break the current record of 850! Shrine lady clowns are also welcome to participate and help set a new world record!

Details will be sent out shortly. Those of you who want to know more, please ask your Divan for whatever information is known right now.

Ben Lortie, former patient of Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston stopped by Board Day to read a letter he wrote to the hospital to our Board Members.

Ben won an essay contest through the Veterans of Foreign Wars organization and was awarded with $100 prize money for his achievement. Ben chose to donate his entire $100 to Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston because of his strong connection to and admiration for the hospital in the hopes that he can help future patients of the hospital. With his donation, he included a letter detailing his gratitude to Shriners as well as his reason for donating his money.

When Ben was just eighteen months old, he accidentally pulled a cup of hot tea onto his chest and neck. He was immediately taken to Morton Hospital in Taunton, where the doctors decided to send him to Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston. In his letter to the hospital, 10 years later, Ben Lortie writes, "I knew I was in great care when I got to Shriners, and that I would be treated with the same amount of respect and care as any other child."

Dear Shriners Hospital,
Two weeks ago, I won an essay contest through the VFW. Ironically, it was exactly 10 years ago, when I was 1 1/2 years old, I unintentionally pulled a cup of hot tea on my chest and neck, the result being 1st and 2nd degree burns. We were living in the Boston area at that time, and my parents took me immediately to Morton Hospital in Taunton where they then transferred me to Shriners Hospital via ambulance. I was told I was in great care right away when I got to your hospital. So that other children who have worse problems than what I had can be treated with the same amount of care and respect I am donating my prize money to help those kids. I know that I don't remember what happened that very day, but now that I am older, I pray that kids like me can be treated the same way with my small donation.

Sincerely,
Benjamin Lortie

2ND ANNUAL SHRINERS DAY AT CITI FIELD

The 2nd Annual Shriners Hospitals for Children Day at Citifield was held on Sunday, April 28, 2013 and it was a great success. A total of 214 tickets were sold. A portion of the proceeds from every ticket sold will be donated by the Mets to the Philadelphia, Boston and Springfield Hospitals. Spirit Awards were given by the Mets to Kismet, Mecca, the Shriners Hospitals for Children in Philadelphia and the Shriners Hospital for Children in Boston, and Parent Volunteer Maria Follenius. Additionally, a public service announcement for the Hospitals was played on the Scoreboard immediately after the presentation of the Spirit Awards. A table was set up near the entrance to the area where we were all seated and literature about the Hospitals was distributed to passers by. Of course, like last year, coloring books were our most popular give-away.

One of the highlights of the game was when Noble Mark Klein, Sr. was given the honor of participating in an in-game promotion. He was on quizzed about Met facts on the scoreboard and won a Mets Cap and some Topps Baseball Cards. Noble Klein and his family were our top ticket sellers to the game, being responsible for the sale of 49 tickets. Another highlight of the game was when Noble Rich Araya caught a t-shirt during the t-shirt launch from the field. It is a rare occurrence that a t-shirt makes it to the Pepsi Porch, but on this day it did.

HICKSVILLE MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

More than a dozen Nobles of Kismet Shrine as well as our friends in the Henry Biel Post of the Masonic War Veterans showed their presence at this year's Memorial Day Parade in Hicksville. In addition quite a few of our kids and grandkids marched along with us and thoroughly enjoyed being a part of the day. It was an honor and pleasure to take part of this event in Kismet's neighborhood. Next year we expect to have mini cars and Wooden Soldiers from Kismet too! What a great way to show our love for our troops and Shriners Hospitals for Children.

TEDDY BEAR CLINIC AT SHC BOSTON

A playful group of 2 and 3 year olds clutch their teddy bears as they step on the footprint path to check in, the first stop of the Teddy Bear Clinic, sponsored by Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston. Robert, an energetic 3-year-old, holds Clifford, his stuffed animal dog that hurt his ear when he fell down the stairs. He checks his dog into the clinic, where he receives a certificate with his dog's name, interests, and injuries. The paw prints lead Robert to the first room, where Clifford is weighed and measured. He is then led to the room where Clifford's ear is wrapped in gauze and a Superman band aid is applied to the injury. Next, Robert has to put on his mask and hat in order to enter the operating room, where he can hear his dog's heart-beat, and watch the medical team perform any necessary surgeries, applying antiseptic first, of course. Finally, Robert takes Clifford to get his ear wrapped in green bandages and a splint put on it to ensure recovery.

For 31 years, Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston has been partnering with the Boston Children's School to offer children The Teddy Bear Clinic. "It's all about what the kids want and what the teddy bears need," says Diane Topliffe, who has been coordinating this event for many years. "Some teddy bears have broken bones, and some are just sick." They all gather here, in the hospital clinic, to help their beloved teddy bears, dogs, bunnies, and turtles feel better.

Boston Children's School, located in Charles River Park, across the street from Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston, has about 45 to 55 students, all ranging from the ages of 2 years and nine months, to seven years. It has been around since 1965, and accommodates students from all over the world. Judy Langer has been the school's director since 1981, and is a key player in the Teddy Bear Clinic. The tradition was started by moms at the school who were nurses. The first year the nurses came to the school, but in the years following, it has been held at Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston. In order to prepare the kids for their outing to the hospital, the children go through a unit on hospitals and learn about children who have special needs, and may be in a wheelchair or on certain medications. Langer states, "We are very fortunate and lucky to have special relations with Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston." She adds that they love when the patients are able to participate in the clinic as well.

Judi Fabbri, Pediatric Nurse Practitioner at Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston is another key player in the Teddy Bear Clinic. Her nursing students at Salem State University celebrate their last day of their clinical experience by participating in the clinic, filling in as official teddy bear doctors, along with other Boston Shriners Hospital employees. Jessica Morehouse and Catherine Winslow, two Salem State University students commented, "We were able to teach them how to use antiseptic and listen to the heart beat. They got to wear masks—they were pretty happy about that." All the kids "heard" their teddy bear's heartbeat.

Retired teacher and grandmother of one of the children, Sarah Ramsey said, "This tops everything." In her 35 years of teaching, she had never seen anything like the Teddy Bear Clinic, and was thrilled that she could participate with her granddaughter. As the children hold their bandaged bears and follow the footprints out of the hospital, they wave goodbye to the doctors, and thank them for healing their teddy bears. This special clinic is another way that Shriners Hospitals for Children – Boston brings awareness of the hospital and its services to the community.

IRON BUTT SADDLESORE RIDE HELPS SHRINE KIDS

The Alee Shriners' Iron Knights Motorcycle Unit invited WTOC's Sonny Dixon to help raise money for the Shriners Hospital for Children in Tampa. The fundraiser was an endurance motorcycle ride – 1,000 or more miles in 24 hours – called an Iron Butt Saddlesore Ride.

With the help of a lot of good people, the group raised more money than expected. Yes, they also made the ride – all day Saturday and a part of Sunday. At 3:30 a.m. Saturday, 21 motorcycle riders and some passengers met at Savannah Harley Davidson. They were staring down the barrel of a long day.

After a prayer, they took off to Tampa via Macon. Their goal? To make it 1,000 miles in 24 hours under the Iron Butt Association rules.

The Shriners Hospital for Children is on the campus of the University of South Florida.

Once the group arrived, they toured the hospital. They also presented the hospital with a check of the funds they raised.

Most of the children are seen on an outpatient basis. The hospital will see anywhere from 40 to 90 kids per day. If a child stays at the hospital, the average stay is three to five days.
