NOTES FROM AROUND THE OASIS

The Pote

I am sitting back in astonishment at how fast the year has gone by. We should be proud of ourselves as a shrine, a lot of good things have been accomplished. Kismet is and will always be the little shrine that could. Please remember that attitude is truly everything. We are the captains of our own destiny. I tapped a great deal of people on the shoulder this year and to be quite honest I was shocked at the amount of people who stepped up for Kismet this year. I see more and more people getting involved and that's a good thing. No Potentate does everything right, and that's okay.

Perfection isn't what the office is all about, it's the experience. I was as inclusive as a Pote could be. Noble Greg Feldman has an excellent year planned for all of us. I wish you the best my brother, it's going to be a pleasure serving you any way I can. To the nobility of this great temple, I thank you for the opportunity. God Bless all of you, and this great fraternity.

Kismet Potentate 2013

Chief Rabban

We are entering the last quarter of 2013. Events are planned each month and I hope everyone comes out so we can finish the year off with continued momentum to carry us into 2014. OctoberFEZt and the Ceremonial were fun. The Ladies Mixer was met with positive comments. It was so successful and the ladies were having so much fun that we had to remind them to join our OctobeerFEZt celebration. I hope to see the Kismet Ladies plan more activities next year. November is Chief Rabban night so please try to make it out for the presentation of my calendar and budget. I have many things planned and I hope that I can stir excitement and anticipation in my fellow Nobles and have your support as we hold elections in December. Remember we still have a Pancake Breakfast planned for the end of October and our Children's Holiday Party on December 14th. Remember our parties and events are open to all. Go online and review the Kismet website and FEZ newsletter. Check out our postings! Come and talk to your Divan. We are at the Kismet Oasis every Monday night. I want to hear from you! SEE YOU MONDAY AT KISMET SHRINE!!!

Greg Feldman

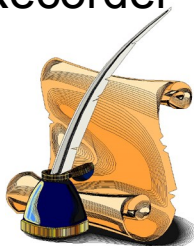

Assistant Rabban

Hello Nobles!
Please keep on coming down to Kismet to enjoy the fun we have together. Every Monday at 7pm we have something to eat and the clubs and units can meet. What? You're not a member of a club or unit??? Then JOIN ONE or START ONE. We need YOU to be involved and sometimes that means taking the ball and running with it! We are here to have fun and help children, so let's get started.

Keep 'em smiling
George "Chuckles" Heyen

The Recorder

Greetings Nobles, new and old!

I would first like to welcome the newest members of our Shrine and remind them to join in and take part in all that we have to offer. Not only does Kismet have a rich past, but we also have a fun present and promising future. Kismet has become known as one of the most fun shrines there are. Whether at parades or parties, we laugh, dance and enjoy every moment.

Of course, that fun comes out because we work so very hard for our Hospitals and our Children. We take our responsibilities seriously and remain ever mindful of our vow to support Shriners Hospitals for Children.

Those of you who've stepped up and worked our events or driven our Children to the hospitals know how good it feels to be doing the work of Shriners International. That feeling of warmth and pride that comes from taking time out of our lives to help those who need help the most can't be compared with anything else. You know that every task, no matter how easy or difficult it may seem, coordinates with every other one to get results. Now don't get me wrong, we all don't always see eye-to-eye nor do we agree on every detail—but at the end of the day we work together and support one another like men and Masons should.

Come down and relax with your friends at Club Kismet every Monday, most Fridays and of course Cigar Nights!

- III. Sir Russell L. Magidson, PP

High Priest And Prophet

Well, another year of Kismet is drawing to a close and this shall be my final article to you as your High Priest & Prophet. But we still have quite a bit going on before the ball drops and we say, 'Hello' to 2014. First off, many thanks to one and all who came out to our Fall ceremonial and OktoberFEZt. For anyone who knows me, that's my favorite Kismet event. Special thanks goes to our Chief Rabban, Greg Feldman, for slugging it out in the kitchen. Also, many thanks to all the Nobles; Master Masons and all their families who came out for our Pancake Breakfast. My son, Michael, really likes pancakes. If you live in Queens or Nassau, why not join the Queens-Nassau Shrine Club? The QNSC meets every month on the first Thursday. Their meetings are held at different restaurants in and around Queens and Nassau. There are brochures all about the temple, so pick one up and add to your Kismet Shrine experience. Sadly, there are many nobles who have not paid their dues. PLEASE pay your dues! Did you know that you can pay your dues by credit card! If you are having difficulty, please contact our Recorder. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for having electing me as your High Priest & Prophet for 2013. It was exciting in my first year as an officer on your Divan. It started off with a great Super Bowl Party. In mid-year I was honored to have assisted Imperial Sir Joe Savaglio on his quest to become an Imperial Officer and it will end with what I know will be a memorable election and a terrific Christmas and holiday season. Please remember to make every effort to attend our election meeting on December 2nd. Remember, when you vote, you are making your voice heard. Finally and most important, with November and December upon us, on behalf of my wife Dawn; little son Michael and myself; my family and I would like to wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving; a very Merry Christmas; Happy Holidays and a very Happy and Healthy New Year. Yours in wisdom...

Clowns

WOW ... WHAT A GREAT TIME WE HAD !

Our friends at the Klown Klub of Mecca Shriner's in New York City invited us to attend their circus at the 9th Mannhattans' park in Tappan, New York. Clowns from New Jersey, Springfield Ma., Rhode Island and Long Island came together to support this team of wonderful Nobles and their Ladies. This charitable event, dedicated to the Shriner's and their Hospitals for Children was hard work and a big gamble. To me it looked like a great success. The children were smiling and laughing. The parents were having a good time. Grandma and grandpa were happy to be there. Every where I looked people were enjoying themselves. I know that the Kismet Clown unit had a great time. Our friends from Springfield helped our new Joey's with their makeup. Our friends from Rhode Island helped with our gag in the ring. Our friends from New Jersey added to the merriment and fun. I am so proud to be a Shriner Clown, we are the greatest group of men, women and families dedicated to the greatest charity in America — Shriner's Hospitals for Children.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE OASIS

Public Relations

The Kismet Shrine Transportation Unit raised over $ 7,000.- at Yer Mans Pub in Glendale Queens recently. We were on the front page of a local newspaper, we had articles in three more. We were on every social media in the neighborhood and we were on web sites and face book. We did everything we could think of to get the word out to Kismet and Glendale Queens. We had a packed venue, but only 17% of the Nobles responded to the direct mailing of one $ 20.- chance book to support our roadrunners. I would like to know why the lack of participation is so low. If you would like to comment to me why you did not support this event please email me at JohnJKellyIII@Gmail.com.

Road Runners

As of now we are also flying our children to the various hospitals in Philly, Springfield and Boston. I have Partnered with a service called PALS (patient airlife services). They fit the kids free of charge when ever possible. Its worth the visit. My thanks to all the Road Runners and volunteers who P als is a volunteer organization whose Pilots use their own Planes and donate their time and fuel cost. My wife and I visited the Shriners Hospital while in Springfield. What a wonderful facility. We were giving a grand tour. My thanks to all Road Runners who help us keep the Kids on the road and in the air. Sam Zakian—Road runner chairman.

On September 28, I with my wife, a nurse. represented KISMET at a “Health Fair” in a church in Ozone Park , Queens. The Fair was intended to publicize the various health programs available in Queens, Many of which are sponsored by NY State and various organizations.

The “Health Fair” was hosted by Michael Miller an Assembly person from Queens. We passed out approximately 35 “Patient Referral Guides” . There was a good turnout and we look forward to being included in many more!!

Noble , John

Captain Of the Guard

Another exciting year at Kismet Shrine is almost over and a lot of hard work has been done by numerous individuals who have done behind the scenes work at our Shrine Center.

Although I was unable to make it, it is my understanding that the Shrine/Mason Picnic that was held on Sunday, August 18, 2013 was a great success. It could not have occurred without the hard work of Noble Omar Roman. He worked very hard preparing for the event and working hard on the day of the event. But Noble Roman did not stop there. He also took upon a leadership role in the planning of our Pancake Breakfast which occurred on Sunday, October 27, 2013.

Another Noble who deserves recognition is Noble Joe Barbuto. He has taken over the role of maintaining our Web-site and has added new features to it, including, but not limited to a running Calendar of what is going on at the Shrine on a regular basis. He is doing a great job.

Yet another Noble who deserves recognition is Noble Bob DiCarlo who served as the Chairman of the successful fundraiser that was held on September 21, 2013 that benefitted the Kismet Shrine Hospital Patient Transportation Fund.

While I know that none of the individuals noted in my article do anything for recognition, I felt that it was important to recognize them and I hope that I also have encouraged some of our newer Nobles to become more active in the goings on at Kismet.

We need more nobles to take leadership roles in planning events and activities at the Shrine. Come up with an idea and communicate it to the Divan and if they approve then hold a planning meeting and recruit help from other Nobles.

We also need help from Nobles in promoting our Shrine Center and the great Hospitals that we support and the services that are offered at those hospitals to those children that are in need.

I look forward to spending more time with you at the Oasis on Monday evenings and look forward to some of our less active Nobles becoming more active in Kismet.

YITF,

Noble David Rothstein Captain of the Guard davidrothstein@verizon.net (917) 322-9136

Kismet Shrine to host silent auction

All funds raised help volunteers transport sick children to hospitals

by Tess McRae
Reporter

Kismet Shrine Patient Transportation Unit, a branch of Shriners International will host a silent auction and fundraiser on Saturday in an effort to raise money for Shriners Hospitals for Children.

The organization, originally formed 100 years ago by Masons, created a program to help children with severe health problems regardless of their parents' ability to pay.

"After 10 years of this group, they wanted to do something to help children with polio," Robert Di Carlo, a Glendale resident and donor relations chairman for Kismet Shrine. "As polio was cured, they switched gears to anything that involves the structure of the body such as cleft lip, cleft palate and burns."

The Shriners Hospitals for Children expanded through the years and now there are 22 facilities in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

"We don't look at color, race, religious background," Di Carlo said. "We look at each child as a child and nothing else. Our doctors are the top in the nation. A lot of cases, the children were told that they can never be corrected and parents are told it's going to cost a lot in medical bills, but that is not the case here."

Up until four years ago, Shriners did not

Shriners Hospitals for Children help kids with major health issues regardless of their parents' ability to pay. Kismet Shrine will host a silent auction to raise funds for their transportation unit.

take insurance because the program runs on an endowment basis. Wealthy individuals would leave a house or a large sum of money to the group. However, as that money began to wane, Shriners agreed to take insurance from those who have it. Kismet Shrine, headquartered in Hicksville, LI, will host the auction on Saturday, which will take place from 6 to 10 p.m. at Yer Man's Irish Pub located at 70-26 88 St., Glendale. It will directly benefit a very important sector of the Shriners Hospitals for Children.

"We have a unit that drives children back and forth to the hospital with their families at no cost but that requires renting cars, paying for gas and tolls," Di Carlo said. "This is all on a volunteer basis as well. We have drivers taking kids all the way to Philadelphia and back so it can get expensive."

Di Carlo said that 100 percent of the funds raised at the auction will go directly to the transportation unit. In addition, Yer Mans will donate part of the profits made from the bar and the kitchen during the night.

"Admission is free but when people enter, they can buy tickets for 'x' amount of dollars and put their tickets into baskets for a raffle," Di Carlo said. "This is an opportunity for people to come out and support children and know whatever they give goes directly to support the transportation unit."

He added that many of the prizes were donated by local businesses.

"We've gotten so much support from the local businesses and I think it makes the community a lot stronger," he said.

There will be brochures available at the auction for those who feel they or someone they know are in need of Shriners' healthcare services.

Those unable to attend the event can visit shrinershospitalforchildren.org/Philadelphia or call (215) 430-4140 for information.

FREE SCREENING HELPS OGDEN GIRL RECOVER

Rare diagnosis at free screening helps Ogden girl recover

OGDEN — In January 2012, Jaime Heren was at her wit's end trying to get help for her then 12-year-old daughter, Faith Heren. Jaime Heren, a single mother at the time, was working two jobs to support herself and her three daughters and didn't have health insurance.

But despite her limited means, Heren had taken Faith to several doctors. She also is employed in the medical field herself. She and all the medical professionals she consulted had been stumped as to what was behind Faith's pain that was keeping her from walking correctly.

"Her foot was dove-tailing out," Heren said. "The doctors couldn't tell me it was her hip. It hurt. She couldn't walk right and she was leaning to the side."

But when Joshua Heren, who has since married Jaime and adopted Faith, took the girl to a free screening offered by Shriners Hospitals for Children — Salt Lake City, held in Ogden, a nurse was able to understand the problem.

The bone in Faith's hip had slipped out of place and was cutting off the blood supply to her hip, Heren said. The bone in the hip was dying. Based on the nurse's notes, the hospital and doctor, Kristen Carroll, agreed to take over Faith's care and donate their services.

"I was just amazed," Heren said. "(The doctor) knew she had to help her because it was that severe."

Faith was admitted into the hospital just a few days after the clinic in January. Today, Faith has had five surgeries and now is walking well, Heren said, Faith recently received a clean bill of health and won't have to report back for another screening for a year.

Faith is one of 210 Weber County children with orthopedic conditions to have been treated at the hospital last year, according to an email from hospital administrators.

Now Shriners Hospitals for Children — Salt Lake City is looking for more children from the Top of Utah to help. The hospital will hold a free screening clinic from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the Ogden Masonic Temple, 1240 20th Street in Ogden.

The Salt Lake City hospital provides care for orthopedic conditions including arthrogryposis (stiff joints), cerebral palsy, clubfoot, limb deformities, limb length differences, osteogenesis imperfecta (brittle bones), rickets, scoliosis, spine conditions and sports injuries. Children up to age 18 are eligible for care at Shriners Hospitals for Children — Salt Lake City if there is a reasonable possibility they can benefit from the specialized orthopedic services available, said information released by the hospital. Acceptance as a patient is based solely on a child's medical needs and care is provided regardless of the ability to pay. For information, visit on-line at shriners-hospitalsforchildren.org/saltlakecity or call Jim Sweet at 801-791-5564 or Carl Fauver 801-266-0315.

Heren said she believes her finding information about last year's screenings and finally receiving a proper diagnosis for Faith was nothing short of a miracle. "Her name is Faith and I definitely had that faith feeling," Heren said. "When I was feeling in despair, I thought that nothing was going to go right." Heren said if her daughter had not received the timely help that she received right after last year's screening, Faith could have lived the rest of her life in a wheelchair or worse.

"I could have lost my child," Heren said. "It could have been seriously life threatening." And the mother said she doesn't know how to thank Shriners Hospitals for Children — Salt Lake City enough. "I would give my life for my daughter," she said. "I probably wouldn't be the woman I am today if I lost my daughter."
